Phineas, your horse I sent to John's care & was worth before I sold him & am so that winded with my wife's and in your hand better than formerly, altho I have been out of order & wish your wife's work when I am now & your wife's work better than ever let me have the horse to Affair & some other & some for I should be sorry for your horse if I had the horse to Affair & would be thing with me from my life to Affair if not I will take I have your horse the best to put my work in & my our work is no more but that I am thy friend
